

MADISON COUNTY YOUTH CENTER HOUSING UNITS

The Youth Center was designed as a campus setting, offering a continuum of care for both delinquent and non-delinquent youth. The campus includes the following resident units:

Sycamore Place (Shelter Care) – capacity 24 –

Emergency, short term placement for children, ages 6-18, in need of safekeeping, as determined by Child Protective Services, or children in need of temporary non-secure detainment, as determined by Juvenile Probation.

Hawthorne House (Boys Residential) – capacity 12 –

Residential treatment for delinquent boys, ages 12-18, referred by the Juvenile Court.

Secure Detention Unit – capacity 32 –

The Secure Detention Unit houses 32 juveniles, males and females, that have been charged with a delinquent act and are awaiting the court process, and/or those adjudicated delinquent and sentenced for a period up to 180 days.
